Board of Directors Recruitment

The San Francisco African American Historical & Cultural Society (the “Society”) has established an on-going year-round process to identify and recruit a diverse pool of highly qualified prospective applicants to the Society Board of Directors. This process is intended to ensure that the Society will be able to appoint directors with the knowledge, expertise and resources needed to successfully address the goals and priorities identified in the Board’s strategic plan.

If you are interested in being considered for one of the 3 Society Board seats that will be filled by September 7, 2022, please complete and submit the attached PROSPECTIVE DIRECTORS FORM at your earliest convenience. We would also appreciate it if you would share this information with others who might be interested.

Thank you for your interest in the Society. If you need additional information or have any suggestions you’d like to share, our phone number and e-mail address are: 415/292-6172 and info@sfaahcs.org.
